

Photography & Filming Policy

Professional or casual amateur photography, filming, and audio recording is permitted in the Library facilities for patrons and visitors, provided that it does not interfere in any way with Library operations or capture any identifiable likeness of members of the public or the Library staff on duty without their permission.